

Regional Vice President

Position Description

Purpose: The regional vice presidents provide leadership, assistance and consultation to area directors and chapter presidents within their respective region. Regional vice presidents chair the regional operating committee (ROCs) and supervise the functions of chapter presidents, area directors, deputy regional vice presidents and assistant regional vice presidents.

Key Responsibilities:

- Provide direction to our chapters that is consistent with the chapter's bylaws as well as the shared chapter value statement, ASSP's strategic plan, the Society's mission and vision statements, and code of professional conduct
- Train incoming chapter officers and area directors to help them understand their obligations and responsibilities
- Help assigned chapters develop chapter programming and operations to improve service to members with diverse needs throughout the chapter territory
- Assist chapter executive committees in the development and execution of operational activities related to succession planning and chapter sustainability
- Maintain a close liaison relationship with assigned chapters through regular connection & communication
- Review regular reports from chapters (including annual reports and financial statements) and evaluate chapter performance as prescribed by the Council on Region Affairs, the Board of Directors and Society bylaws
- Assist Society staff in following up on required chapter reports as necessary
- Maintain ongoing communication with area directors, chapter presidents and assistant regional vice presidents
- Administer the ROC schedule and preside at a minimum of two ROC meetings each year.
- Conduct election of deputy regional vice presidents and appoint assistant regional vice presidents and other region and committee chairs as necessary
- Lead the region's succession planning efforts through volunteer recruitment, delegation and mentoring, aligning to ASSP's required leadership competencies and commitment to diversity and inclusion
- Serve as a member on the Council on Region Affairs (CORA), which aims to provide value to ASSP membership through ASSP chapter communities. (CoRA meets virtually each month)

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF SAFETY PROFESSIONALS

- Serve as a senior elected ASSP leader, sharing insights and member feedback with ASSP Board of Directors (through the vice president, regional affairs and senior vice president) and assist in the cascade of information from the Society and the region to chapter leaders as necessary
- Serve as a member of the ASSP Advisory Group

Support:

- Online training and resources from Society
- Participation in a leadership development experience for newly elected regional vice presidents
- Additional training through CORA meetings, community leader resource center, ROC meetings, and other Society events
- Transition meeting with outgoing regional vice president
- Additional support available from Board of Directors, CoRA, and the professional staff team

Benefits:

- Opportunity to develop transferrable leadership, problem-solving, strategic planning, and project management skills
- Opportunity to grow professional network and advance the safety profession through mentoring, developing future safety leaders, and ensuring the delivery of member value through ASSP chapters
- Opportunity to participate ASSP Leadership Development Experience and Leadership Conference for training and networking
- Earn professional certification maintenance points
- Receive a complimentary registration to the ASSP Annual Professional Development Conference during your term of office.

Time Commitment:

- Term of office: 3 years, July 1 - June 30
- Average hours per month: 10 to 15 hours per month, including monthly one-hour CORA virtual meetings.

Qualifications:

- Member of ASSP in good standing
- Must reside in or be employed in and hold your primary ASSP chapter membership in a chapter within the region
- Must have held a leadership position within the region, area or chapter, or another senior leadership position
