

5 WAYS THE ASSP COMMUNITY IS DIFFERENT THAN LINKEDIN

The ASSP Community is a new online forum for members that connects great resources and great people. But what distinguishes it from LinkedIn and other social media platforms that you already use? Here are five key differences.

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF
SAFETY PROFESSIONALS
COMMUNITY

LinkedIn®

Is a space exclusively for ASSP members

Is a space for professionals across many industries

Provides opportunities to deepen connections with like-minded peers

Provides opportunities to network across professions and advocate for safety

Allows you to seek answers to technical questions from trusted sources

Allows you to discuss the news of the day with people who may not have the same background

Is a no-judgment zone where you can feel free to admit what you don't know

Is a celebration zone where you can feel free to share your success

Gives you a chance to discuss upcoming career or hiring moves without fear of reprisal

Gives you priceless tools for finding new career opportunities and candidates
