

VICKI CLARK

Throughout her now over 30-year career, Vicki Clark has helped leaders LEAD ON! Her extensive experience as a nonprofit leader, consultant and coach assists leaders in times of transition to seek out the opportunity. Vicki believes that when decisions are made that recognize the people you are trying to serve with honor and integrity, good things happen.

Based in Memphis, Tennessee, Vicki Clark has extensive experience as a speaker, trainer, facilitator, mentor and thought leader. Vicki's mission is to help build the capacity of organizations and individuals. Her hands-on and intuitive blend of consulting, coaching and a bit of tough love helps clients move forward with purpose and focus. Vicki helps organizations take an active approach to inclusion and dismantling oppression.

Each year, she speaks to thousands of community and business leaders and has made presentations in 49 of the 50 United States. Her international experience includes engagements in England, Russia, Canada and Venezuela.

Vicki has worked with a broad range of organizations including Union Bank, Dun & Bradstreet, Mille Lacs Corporate Ventures, National Association of Women Business Owners, Centers for Disease Control, St. Jude Children's Hospital, American Bar Association, Servant Leadership Institute, CCS Fundraising, National Conference of State Legislatures, National Center for Family Literacy, Delta Leadership Institute, Ronald McDonald House Charities, Indiana Community Action Agencies, HIPPPY-Home Instruction for Parents of Preschool Youngsters, United Way and the Association of Junior Leagues International.

When she is not training, she enjoys listening to music, reading and spending time with family.
